

Three New COVID-19 Mobile Testing Sites Now Open at Ascension Wisconsin Locations in Milwaukee and Racine

Milwaukee, Wis. - New COVID-19 mobile testing sites are now open at three Ascension Wisconsin locations in Milwaukee and Racine. Access to COVID-19 testing is essential to reducing the spread of COVID-19.

- WHERE:
- Ascension All Saints Hospital
3807 Spring Street, Medical Office Building C, Racine, WI 53405
 - Ascension SE Wisconsin Hospital - St. Joseph Campus
5000 West Chambers Street, Milwaukee, WI 53210
 - Ascension Wisconsin Medical Arts Pavilion
2025 West Oklahoma Avenue, Milwaukee, WI 53215

WHO: All ages

WHEN: Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Weekend hours are expected to be added soon.

HOW: Appointments are not required but pre-registration is recommended at: register.covidconnect.wi.gov/en-US/.

WHY IT MATTERS: A positive test early in the course of illness is important for several reasons. Early diagnosis enables individuals to isolate themselves, reducing the chances they'll infect others. It also allows them to seek treatment earlier, with the goal of reducing disease severity and preventing hospitalization.

Updated information about these locations and others can be found on the Wisconsin Department of Health Services COVID-19: Community Testing Sites website. In Milwaukee, additional testing information can be found at Healthy MKE.
