

North Shore Health Department Public Briefing

December 18th, 2020 as of 4:00 p.m.

Join Experts from the Medical College of Wisconsin for a Briefing Focused on COVID-19 Vaccines

As the first COVID-19 vaccines receive approval for emergency use authorization and Wisconsin receives its first batch of these vaccines, the Medical College of Wisconsin is pleased to continue providing up-to-date information and insight regarding the pandemic through a MCW COVID-19 Community Briefing. Webinars will feature Dr. John Raymond and Dr. Laura Cassidy and are open to the public. Briefings will include opportunities to ask questions from MCW experts and highlights include safety, distribution planning, what you can expect from the vaccine and community protection.
